Video is unrateable

Use this when the video itself does not load, or if you do not have enough information to provide a rating. Also use this flag if there is slang or words or phrases you don't understand or if the language used in the video makes it hard for you to provide a confident rating.

Video in a foreign language

Use this if the video is not in a language you understand. If the language is different from the language specified in the task, but you understand it, select this flag and do your best to rate the video if you feel you have enough context. If the language barrier prevents you from accurately rating the task, select both "Video is unrateable" in addition to "Video is in a foreign language".

If the video contains sensitive content, check the relevant box or boxes.

i Ask yourself, would you feel uncomfortable watching the video in a public space with the volume on?
