"Project Veritas 'Selectively Edited' My Words"

This rat-faced kikePNG gave context and went into detail, that's not selectively editing. That rat is scared, she has been caught red-handed. There is no missing context here. She explicitly stated that they were out to manipulate election results (prevent another "Donald Trump" situation) by enforcing their own idea of "fairness," which she openly admitted was not what others would consider "fair." This is electioneering, plainly and simply. She wasn't imprecise, and the clip didn't lack context. They're busted.

O'Keefe said it perfectly: These cunts routinely cut down 3-4 hour interviews to a few second clips. Then submit them as "evidence" for law suits. Their hypocrisy knows no bounds. Ask Alex Jones.

I quite liked when she did the typical cunt plea:

Omg I just got done with another 12 hour flight jetsetting around to wine and dine with Omg when I could finally check my phone there were a million messages!

Omg some of them were mean!

It's not my fault!

I'm not the CEO!

Oh oy vey me a river. Why is it (((every single time)))?

The floodgates are about to open. It's going to come crashing down, and this will all be used in court/congress/regulation hearings. They have no idea just how fucked they are. They are freaking the fuck out right nowJPG. The breakdown of trust in their inner circles must be absolutely seismic.

Check out this email:JPG

"Significant step in terms of user trust"

Somehow alienating users and making it more difficult to access content they enjoy will restore user trust. How do these people get hired?

I would be extremely wary about any additional regulations. I don't want government having the power to open and shut valves on the flow of information. I do want Google, Facebook, Twitter, etc. to lose their immunity liability and get the everloving fuck investigated out of them. There's no way this shit isn't some kind of campaign law violation. The government has a constitution they must adhere to, their regulations can't possibly be worse. Proposed legislation so far has only included large companies with hundreds of millions of users. This needs to happen, even if the government fucks it up it will be better than a technocratic dictatorship run by trannies and genetic dead end bugmen.

This also just happened.

Senator Cruz grills Google on Allegations of Politically Biased Censorship

Project Veritas source

Archived tweet

Heres a question. Why was it ONLY Cruz grilling these fucks? Everyone there should have been tearing Google a new asshole.

But then again, Assange and Wikileaks basically exposed the CIA using our smart TV software to bug people's homes and no one gave a fuck. Absolutely nothing will come of this because the minute someone in power attempts to destroy the evil that lurks throughout every government worldwide, those same people end up dead.

This is EXACTLY what google wanted, to push the overton window so far and so hard it snapped and snapped hard. Google WANTS regulations, it will be the death of all competitors. I honestly don't think for one second that the top exes in Google thought they could just keep going and there to have never been any blow back, deliberate and obvious censorship on their platforms and search result manipulation against conservative voices while there is a conservative president in power. Deranking news sites that speak favorably about the current administration and promoting sites that push hoaxes against the current fucking sitting president.

We are walking straight into their hands, the only solution is to smash google into tiny pieces and make the shards of what was once google and tell them take a pick, editor or neutral public space. No new laws or regulations just the application of the ones we have. Anything else and we will be forced into an even worse situation.

Google is the furthest of far left.

Here's my theory. This is all part of their plan, too be so blatant and obvious with their manipulation that the government has to step in and reign in on these tech companies. Bills are drawn up, laws are made, and then the government has control and oversight of the flow of information online... More censorship ensues, but now the people have given this control over to deep state hacks.

everyone is either aware of what is happening with big tech, or they are a dem voter in denial.

All of the 'journalists' for these 'news' networks are currently sitting on Twitter talking about how 'fake' the videos are.

Not one of them has investigated it in any conceivable way.

Not one of them asked Project Veritas's main dude for an interview or a comment.

Not one of them had prior insight or notice of the undercover operation.

But they ALL come out to say the video is fake all at once.

The next fucking person to say "the media doesn't collude with the DNC" is getting aborted.

Crazy how GamerGate was such an entry redpill for people like me. I was oblivious. I thought that once the MSM knew the truth, the whole lid to the thing would blow off. Nope, they were given the truth, and they completely ignored it in favor of their agenda...

Then I was like, what else did they lie to me about? How long has this been going on? How many Jews really died during the Holocaust? If Hitler would have known what the Jews would end up doing to his country, his people, and the world, do you think their would have been a real Holocaust? Why is it that behind every fucked up event in history for the past century has had Jews at the helm? If all people are equal and white people aren't superior, then why is it the only way other races have a chance to succeed is if white people are held back and the standards are lowered for brown people?

What I love most about her blog post is anyone living in the bay area read "Dublin to San Francisco" as Dublin, CA to San Francisco, CA.

I had to reread that part to understand she flew from Dublin, Ireland. I picked that up as her trying to communicate her superiority to others in the bay area.

Why are all your questions so naive and stupid? Who are you putting on this play for, your own uncomfortable thoughts or all the basic bitches who still think they have a country?

How can you be this interested and informed on such topics but have yet to realize you're a slave?

When you accept that you're a slave, all these questions will suddenly have answers and you can stop feigning indignation and astonishment.
